Foreword

The best of prophets of the Future is the Past

—Lord Byron

In presenting the 1946 annual, the Daisy Chain staff endeavors to fulfill a two-fold purpose. While compiling a school record to be cherished by all graduates, we also wish to weave into these pages the glorious heritage of the history of McLennan County.

Dedication

To the Tigers of 1945, the team that won our love and admiration by their determination to fight for and finally to reach their cherished goal, and to the coaches who played such an important part in their success, we, the Seniors of 1946, with pride and affection dedicate this edition of The Daisy Chain.

Jack Simpson

"Deeper, deeper, let us toil
In the mines of knowledge:
Nature's wealth and learning's spoil
Win from school and college;
Delve we there for richer gems
Than the stars of diadems."

—James Montgomery.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

How many of you, when passing the Administration Building at Fourth and Webster, have thought about its being the first home of Waco High School? It was called Central High School in those days, and the more ambitious young Wacoans sought knowledge in its small classrooms. Built in the early 1880's, the high school consisted of two frame buildings. Later, these were replaced by a large brick structure; but the increased attendance soon made it necessary for the high school to change buildings again. At Thanksgiving time, in 1911, the new school was completed; and Waco High School moved to its present location on Columbus Avenue.

Waco was the first city in the state to utilize and perfect her public school system. Although there was much hesitation about starting such a system, public schools made rapid progress in Waco, the "Athens of Texas," after taking the first hurdles successfully.

Viewing Waco High School as the great institution it is now, we find it hard to believe that it started on such a small scale, with only five graduates in the class of 1887.

As long as the Administration Building remains standing, it should be looked upon as a landmark by Waco alumni, for its first glimmering light helped make Waco High School the beacon of knowledge it is today.

"Ye say, they all have passed away,

That noble race and brave;

That their light canoes have vanished

From off the crested wave;

That, 'mid the forests where they roamed,

There rings no hunter's shout;

But their name is on your waters,—

Ye may not wash it out."

—Lydia Huntly Sigourney

LOVER'S LEAP

In the wild, uncultivated beauty of Cameron Park dwells the spirit of Nature beloved by the Indians. The red men roamed its shady glens before the pioneers came, enjoying the same loveliness that has been preserved for us.

What Waco High School student has not delighted in relating the legend of Lover's Leap to a visitor or new resident of Waco? After hiking, driving, or bicycling to Lover's Leap, nothing could be finer than to look down from the cliff and recall this Indian story. One can almost see the Huaco maiden and her Apache lover standing on the limestone bluff overlooking the Bosque River. The voices of her angered father and brothers come nearer. Rather than be parted in life, the lovers have decided to die together. Whispering a few words of courage to the maiden, the Apache brave folds her tightly in his arms; and they leap together from the cliff.

Today, crowds of Wacoans fill the park in search of rest and recreation. There are facilities for picnickers, a swimming pool, playground equipment, a zoo, room for all types of games, and beauty enough to suit any poet or dreamer. A favorite spot for picnics of Waco High School clubs, Cameron Park rings with youthful laughter as it echoes through the ancient trees. In answer come the chants of the poetic Huacos, handing down their legends of love and honor.

"Brave was the word of faith and bravely was it kept;
With never-wearying zeal that faltered not, nor slept,
Our Alma Mater toiled, and while she firmly laid
The deep foundation-walls, at all her toil she prayed.
And men who loved the truth
because it made them free,
And clearly saw the twofold
word of God agree,
Reading from Nature's book and from the Bible's page
By the same inward ray that grows from age to age,
Were built like living stones
that beacon to uplift,
And drawing light from Heaven gave to the world the gift.

—Henry Van Dyke

BURLESON HALL AT BAYLOR

Named for the wife of Dr. Rufus C. Burleson, this living monument glories in the memories of past school years and helps create the historical atmosphere of Baylor University. Many Waco High School seniors will soon find themselves a part of this inspirational atmosphere and heritage that is so very distinctly Baylor's.

Waco University, as it was called then, was the first co-educational school in the South and the second in America. It also has the distinction of being the only institution of any kind, now in existence, that was chartered by the Republic of Texas. It came into being at Independence near Houston but moved to Waco during the first year of the Civil War. After twenty-five years of success, Waco University became Baylor University in 1886. The new name was in honor of Judge R. E. B. Baylor, the jurist and preacher who wrote the charter and made a large cash contribution to the school.

Baylor practically belonged to Dr. Burleson from the beginning. He devoted his life to it, selecting the faculty and trustees and enabling it to carry on with his own money. A bronze statue on the campus honors this great educator. If he could see Baylor today, he would realize that his hopes have been fulfilled and his greatest dream has come true.

This bridge, outlined against the horizon,

Was the first built over the Brazos stream.

Where are the Indians who swam in these waters?

Where is the pioneer's oxen team?

Only their mem'ries remain here in Waco

As our seniors prepare to face worldly strife.

They, too, must cross a suspension bridge—

The bridge from school to Life.

—Nancy Lee Thompson

SUSPENSION BRIDGE

A certain air of charm and mystery surrounds the old suspension bridge, for it has been standing ever since the early days of Waco's history. What a task it must have been to build a bridge on those shifting, sandy banks in the early 1870's!

One of the most significant events in the history of Waco and McLennan County was the completion of this first bridge over the Brazos River. Being 475 feet in length, this suspension bridge was the longest one in the world at that time. It was opened to traffic on January 6, 1871; and for nearly twenty years, a toll was charged to everyone who crossed it.

This famous bridge helped Waco become the great city it is today by making secure her place as a commercial and agricultural center. In fact, some of the most important years of Waco's history immediately followed the completion of the suspension bridge.

An old saying states that "the grass is always greener on the other side of the fence," and the same lesson could be applied to the other side of a bridge. Although most seniors are eager to find jobs or enter college, they will soon look back, with fond recollections, to the high school on the other side of the bridge.

CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

ONE of the outstanding assemblies of the 1946 school year was the inspirational Christmas program presented by the Music Department of Waco High School. Miss Grace Hamilton, standing opposite the familiar manger scene, led the chorus in Yuletide songs. The students joined in the singing with enthusiasm.

This enthusiasm was characteristic of the assemblies throughout the year. During the first assembly on September 27, members of the Student Government were presented. Assemblies of special interest were the soul-stirring musical program featuring Rubinoff and his violin and a humorous talk by Boyce House. On November 8, the Senior Mixed Chorus presented a program. On February 18, Mr. M. H. Bruner of the E. I. Dupont De Nemours Company spoke on "Research in Everyday Living." Other assemblies were the National Honor Society initiations, the Senior Recognition programs, and the special government assemblies. The cooperation of the students made these assemblies possible more often during the year.

Most Representative Girl and Boy

PEGGY HICKS and HAROLD "Tex" WILLIAMS, chosen by the student body as the most representative girl and boy of Waco High School, were presented by Mayor George Stone at the all-school government party on March 29. The candidates, who were elected by the homerooms, were as follows: Peggy Hicks, Ada Stone, Betty Fay Sligh, Kathleen Hartley, Helen Silvey, Sue Holt, Mary Ann Steele, Jean Harman, Frieda Bruck, Martha Lou Miller, Barbara Schwan, Joan Pardo, Eva Beth Crump, June Ferguson, Emily Burt, Martha Ann Chilcote, Nada Sue Carmichael, Ellen Ricketts, Hollis Chatham, James Williams, Harold Williams, Ray Barnett, Joe Gilleland, Nick Klaras, Vernon Potter, Bill Bailey, Richard Smith, Weldon Clifton, and Ernest Daily.

These government-sponsored parties have been bright spots in our school social life this year. Featuring games, dancing, refreshments, and such special features as a play given by the football boys and the presentation of the most representative girl and boy, these social gatherings have united the student body while supplying them with fun and relaxation. May each school year bring even more school parties!

AT the football game October 19, 1945, spectators waited eagerly for the presentation of the new football queen. Which lovely candidate had been chosen?

Then from the side of the field came five open convertibles, each conveying a high candidate for football queen. Each of the girls wore an evening dress and carried mums. The bouquets had been presented by Wolfe's, Reed's, Muhl's, and Blanton's floral shops. Kay Tidwell escorted Jean Harman; Hollis Chatham, Peggy Hicks; Mayor George Stone, Robbie Lochridge; Don Ed Smith, Marjorie Stallard; and Robert Tucker, Barbara Schwan.

Stepping out of the convertibles, the candidates and their escorts walked to the center of the field. With Bill Bailey as radio announcer, Walter Fadal presented the 1945-46 football queen—Robbie Lochridge! A watch was presented to Robbie from L. Fred and Son, Jewelers, and the team gave her a football which had been autographed. Coronado Jewelers presented Peggy Hicks, the runner-up, with a small football on a necklace.

Amid the music of the band and applause from the crowd, the queen, the other candidates, and their escorts drove from the field.

The next morning the group met in front of Peggy Hicks' house to pose for the camera—a fitting climax to one of the most exciting contests of the school year.

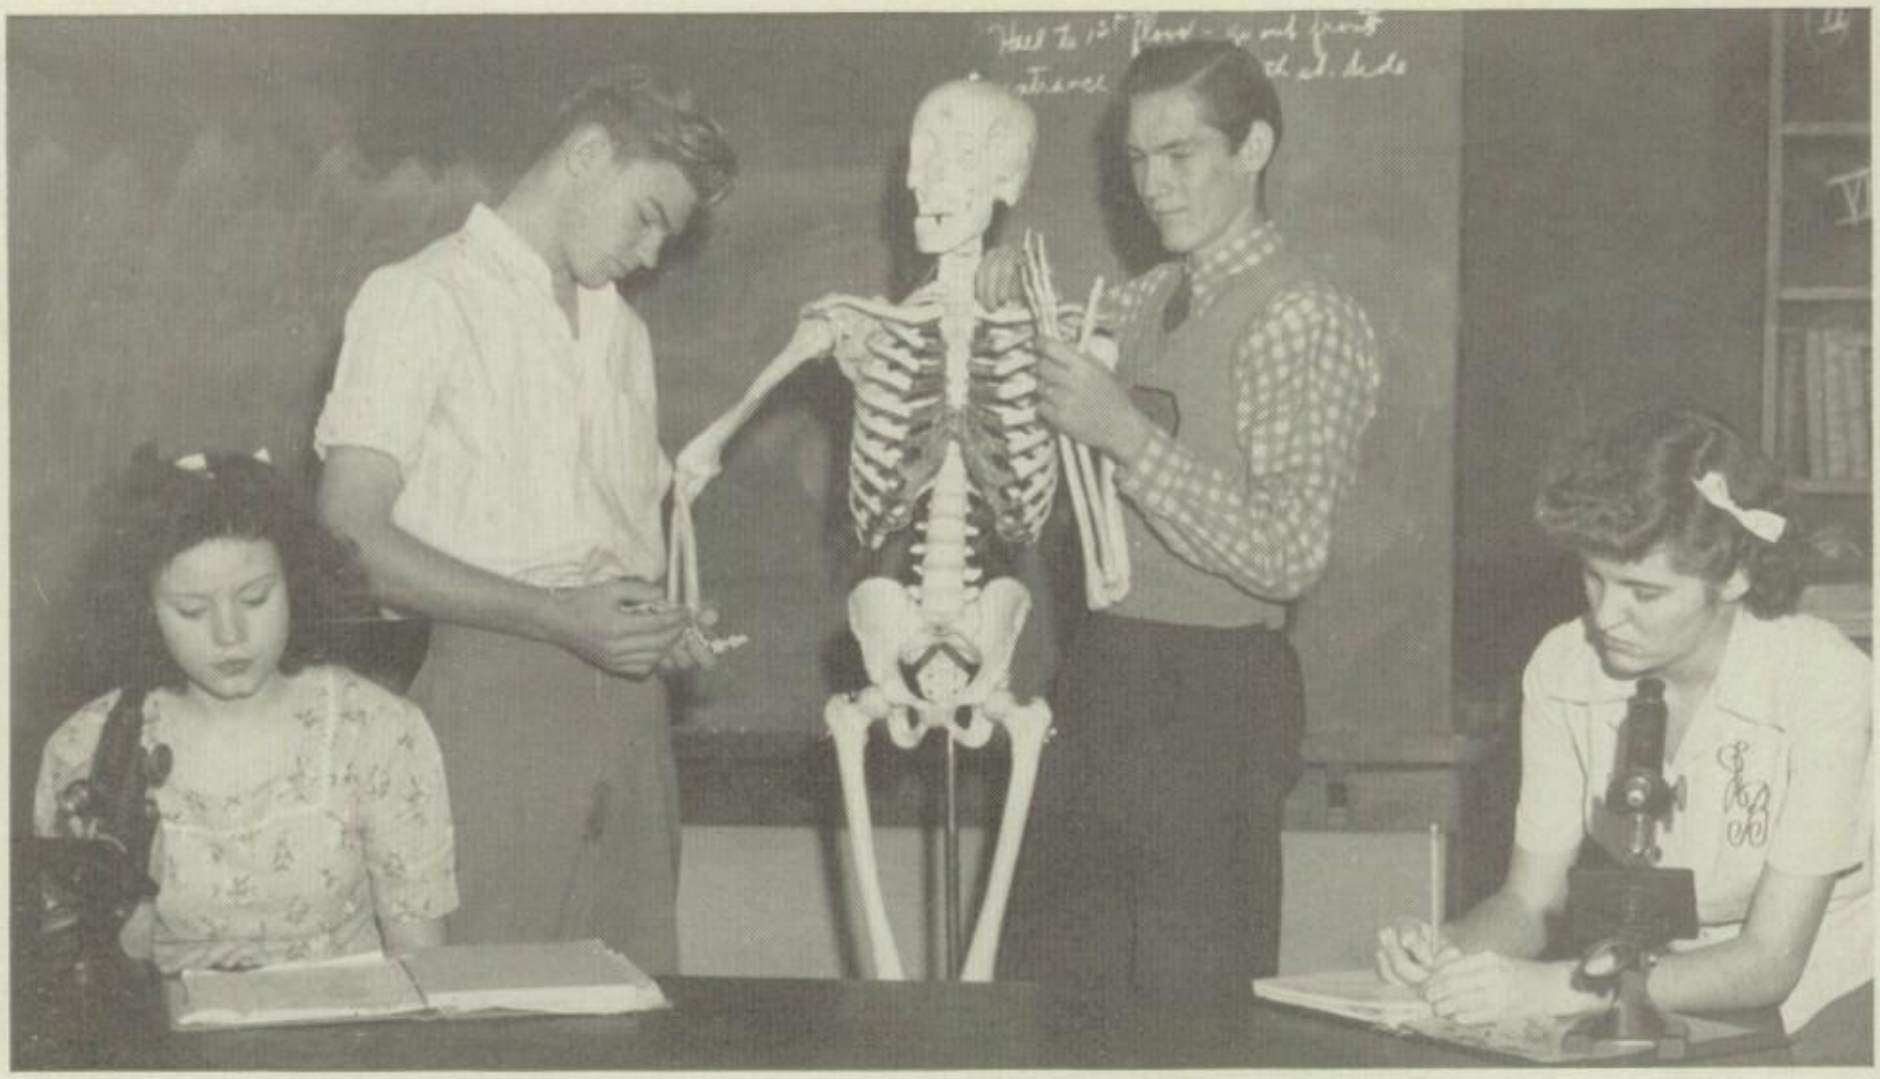
ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Pauline Crow listens as her 12A English students make book reports. On the bulletin board are featured reading suggestions.

Wanda Clark, a Spanish student, examines the treasury of curios exhibited in this cabinet which delights visitors to Miss Hattie Zurfluh's room.

Mary Ruth Norris, Roberta Hatch, Beverly Ghrist, Ada Stone, Bobby Sheehy, and Charles White repeat the JCL oath of office after Martha Lou Miller. The Junior Classical League is open to Waco High School Latin students.



Louise Parrish and Jo Ann Baker do microscopic work while Billy Harrell and Billy Kirk examine the skeleton in the Science Department.

Bobby Haddock, David Hoppock, and Ruby Dunwody dissect a frog under the direction of Mrs. Annie Barclay.

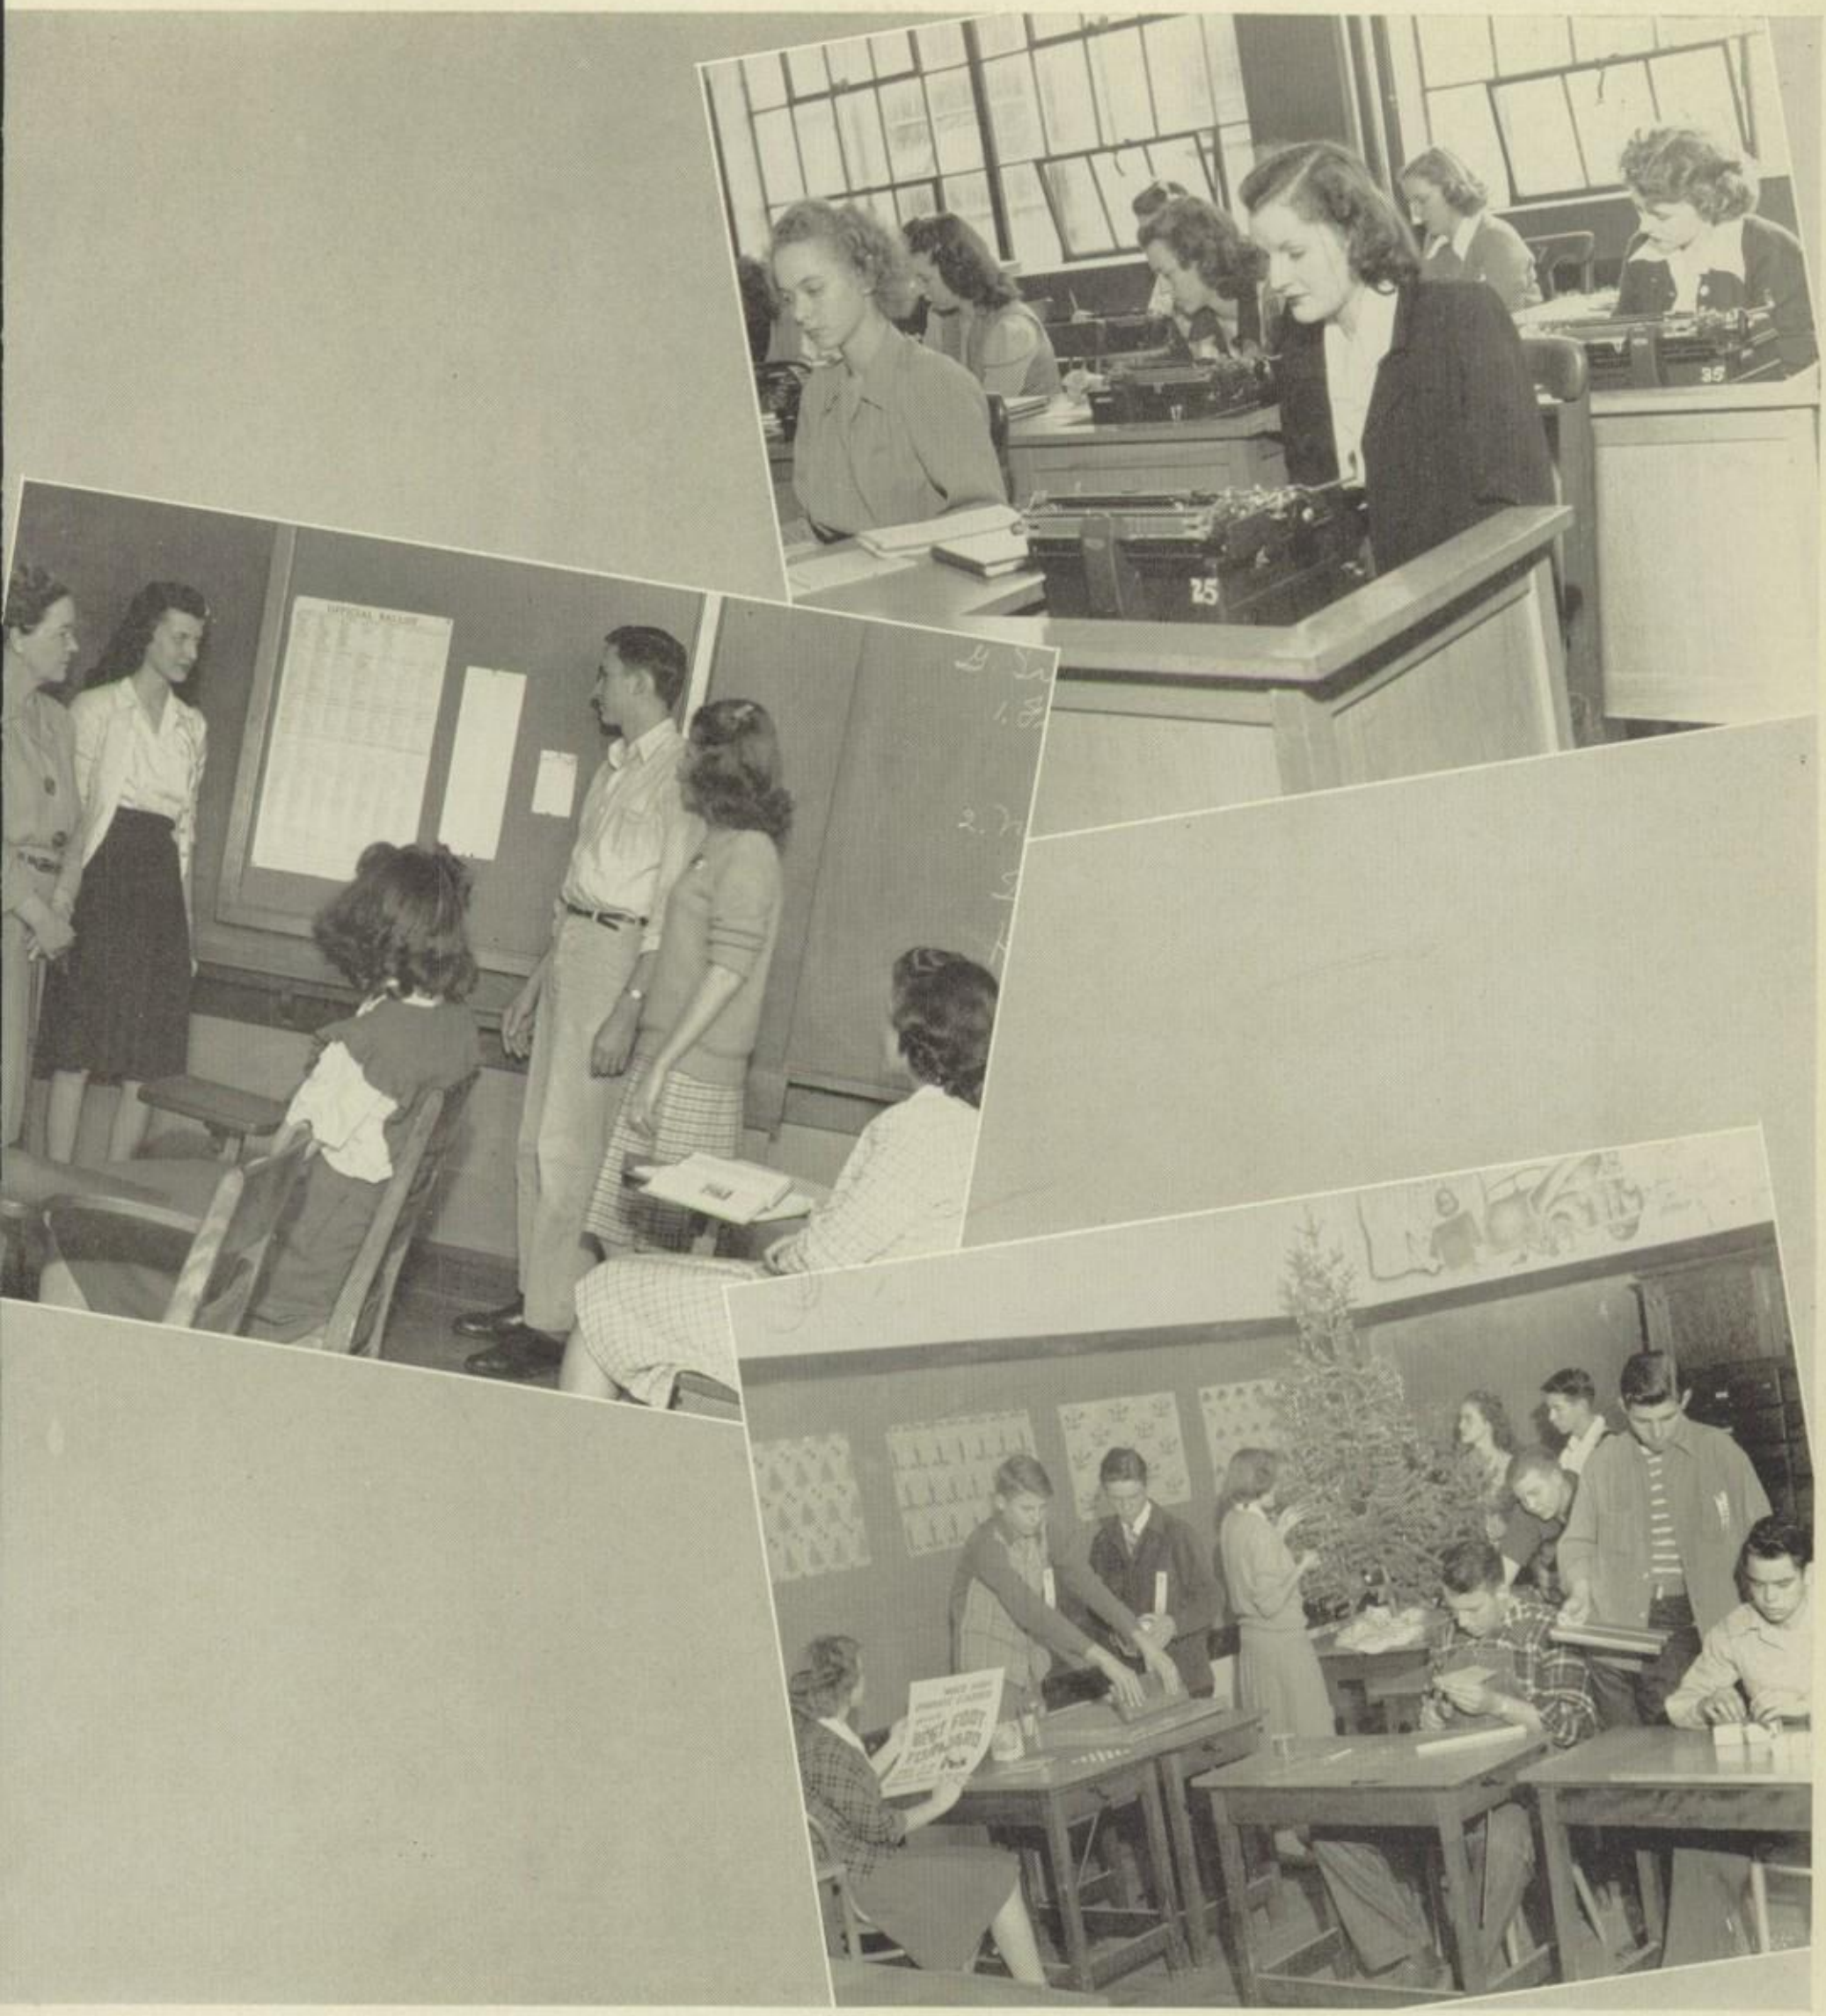
Future home-makers Patsy Ann Ryals, Minnie Martin, Ernestine McDade, Marjorie Ann Dorsett, Eunice Watson, and Dorothy Dell Engle learn to preserve fruit.

Mr. E. A. Werner trains Richard Dareya and George Johnson in the art of wood turning.

Clifton Thorn explains similar triangles to the other members of the seventh period solid geometry class taught by Miss Helen Wildish.

Purdis Medlin and Melvin Wade learn what to do when the car breaks down in Mr. H. E. Wise's Auto Mechanics class.

With the aid of Maxine Barham, Miss Waurine Walker makes a recording of Dana Crawford's voice to help Dana improve his speech.



The typing classes of Waco High School are filled with students who will find the knowledge useful in office jobs or in everyday life.

Mrs. Annie Vaden explains the voting system of the United States to her 12A Civics class as Guinevere Voils, Vernon Potter, and Sue Holt examine an official ballot.

Members of the Art Department are busily engaged in various activities, such as making posters for a Dramatics Class play, artistically decorating a Christmas tree, and making Christmas gifts.

Student Government

THE Student Government of Waco High School, originated by Mr. E. T. Genheimer, plays a vital part in the school machinery. Starting as an experiment, this plan of government was first tested in the spring of 1925. The meetings were held once a week in the east room of the gym. In this advisory form of government the court held a high position and dealt particularly with arrests.

Quite unique is the City Manager form of government employed by the school, because until 1937 Waco High was the only school using this plan.

The sponsors of the Student Government, in order, have been: Mr. E. A. Bernhausen, Mr. H. T. Torrance, Mr. C. C. Perry, Mr. J. R. Gordon, Mr. Perry for three more years, and Miss Elor Osborn, who is the present sponsor.

Among the special events of the Student Government was the convention, in 1938, of the Texas Association of Student Council, held in Waco during April. Also, the first radio broadcast to originate from the gym was a program by the school government in 1935.

THE Pan-American Club of Waco High School was organized in 1926 as a Spanish Club under the name of La Granada. The purpose of the club then, as now, was to promote friendship for and appreciation of Latin America. La Granada was a charter member of the Pan-American Student Forum of Texas, organized in Dallas, and is still an active chapter with its sponsor serving as State Director.

For many years, the club met every two weeks, and the programs were given entirely in Spanish. In 1944 the membership was opened to students of Latin American History, and the name was changed to the Pan-American Club. The club now meets every week, and the programs for the most part are given in English about Pan-American subjects. The members receive a monthly magazine, "Pan-Am Times," published in Austin.

In addition to the regular club work and the sponsorship of the observance of April 14 as Pan-American Day, the club cooperates in every way possible with the community. This year the Texas Pan-American Student Forum is starting an exchange scholarship fund with each member contributing ten cents. Waco High PASF will meet its quota on this most worthwhile project.

Many former members have served in the Armed Forces of World War II. Some paid the supreme sacrifice, some were wounded, and others were prisoners of war. All served with distinction; and those returning, together with the present members, hope to enlarge the former ideal of a New World Brotherhood to a One World Brotherhood.

THE first meeting of the Genheimer Literary Society was called to order by its first president in the fall of 1915. A group of earnest girl debaters and declaimers constituted the membership of the club, purposing to further school-wide interest in national and international events. During the early years of its growth Genheimer debate teams represented Waco High School in Dallas, Mart, Calvert, Fort Worth, Bremond, and Temple. As public sentiment grew in favor of such activities, these fields of speech were introduced into the regular course of study.

The Genheimer of the present takes pride in upholding the high standard set down in the annals of the twenty-one years in Genheimer's history. Now as a service organization, the Genheimerites lead in directing the Junior Red Cross Drive, in initiating the Girls' Vocational Clinic in Waco High School, and in furnishing parties to which the student body was invited.

HISTORY

THE desire to encourage and extend the literary activities of Waco High School was the objective for the founding of the English Literary Society. The first sponsor was Mr. E. Douglas Johnson, now principal of North Junior High School. Under Mr. Johnson's supervision, the constitution was drafted and approved in the fall of 1933 with eight charter members. For five years Mr. Johnson served as sponsor. When Mr. Johnson left in 1938, Miss Zou Steele Daniel became sponsor of the club.

To advance the literary activities of the school, the English Literary Society sponsors annual poetry and essay contests. Each term the society presents medals to the outstanding English student of Waco High School, North Junior High School, East Junior High School, South Junior High School, and West Junior High School. Throughout its existence, the club has cooperated with all school-sponsored drives. It is the aim of the English Literary Society to carry on, as it has in the past, individual literary activities of Waco High School.

HISTORY

WITH Mrs. Marian C. Butler and Miss Elor Osborn as sponsors and Eddie Caldwell as chairman, the Waco chapter of the Junior Classical League was formed in Waco in the fall of 1940.

In January of the following year, by invitation of Waco, a Texas State Junior Classical League was formed in Waco, with James Leo Garrett, president of the Waco chapter, elected as president.

Since this time another state president has been chosen from Waco High School, Forrest Wortham; one state secretary, Martha Lou Miller, and one state treasurer, Bill Bailey, have been elected to hold offices in the state chapter, also.

The Waco Chapter of the Junior Classical League "covenants to hand on the torch of classical civilization in the modern world."

IN 1921 a group of secondary school principals, realizing the great need for a national scholastic society, met in Chicago to draw up the constitution of what was then called The American Torch Society. The name was later changed to the National Honor Society.

The society has met with approval among the secondary schools of the nation and now has approximately 3,294 chapters. The Waco High School Chapter was founded in 1940 under the sponsorship of Mrs. Flora Edmond Winton.

The National Honor Society may well be termed the "Junior Phi Beta Kappa," as so many of its members in college find places in Phi Beta Kappa.

The principles of the society are Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. The purpose is to teach students the importance of looking beyond high school courses, seeing and striving toward worthy goals, and making the ideals of the society a means of self-guidance in their daily life and higher education.

HISTORY

IN 1910 a club called Lovers of Literature Club was organized in Waco High School by Mr. C. L. Davis and Miss Hallie D. Walker. For a while both boys and girls were admitted to membership.

Several years later, Miss Annie M. Forsgard became the sponsor. The name was changed to the Darden Literary Society in honor of Mr. W. E. Darden, principal at the time. (When a club for boys was organized, the Darden limited its membership to girls.)

Besides furnishing some excellent literary programs, the club has contributed to civic welfare. It participated in World War II by supporting scrap metal and paper drives and by making Red Cross donations.

This year the club is proud of the fact that two yell leaders, the two girl commissioners, the winner of the state declamation contest for girls, four of the Senior favorites, and the June Class president are Dardens.

THE Rostra Literary Society of Waco High School was organized in 1914. It grew out of the debating tendencies exhibited by the members of an English class of Mr. T. S. Montgomery.

Competition in debate between the Rostra and Forum began in 1916, and from 1920-1925, Mr. William F. Blaine offered a $25 award to the winner of this annual contest. Since that time four other contests have been added to the year's schedule: radio speech, declamation, extemporaneous speaking, and essay.

The motto of the club is "Ad Astra Per Aspera" which means "To the Stars Through Difficulties."

The symbol is a shield divided into three parts. In the upper left hand corner is an inkwell, a quill, and a scroll, symbolizing the composition work of the club. In the upper right hand corner is a gavel, emblematic of parliamentary practice. The bottom division contains a hand pointing to the stars through the motto, representing the highest ambitions of the club.

The purposes of the club have been exemplified in the accomplishments of some of its members. The Honorable W. R. Poage is now a United States congressman. A member of the Rostra who became a Rhodes Scholar was Robert Lee Guthrie. One of the famous correspondents of World War II was H. R. (Pinky) Knickerbocker, also a Rostraite.

THE Forum Debating Society, organized over thirty years ago, is wholly a public speaking and debating club. Pat M. Neff was chosen patron of the society back when he was Governor of Texas, and his autographed picture—a gift from him—adorns the walls of the club room.

The Annual Banquet Debate Gavel became the permanent property of the Forum because members won twelve out of fourteen annual inter-club debates between 1920 and 1933. Also the Edward George Debate Award Cup is in the club room, as four straight annual inter-club debates between 1937 and 1940 were won.

As far back as records reach twenty-five years, the Forum has won twenty-one annual inter-club debates. The Forum has lived according to its constitution and traditions.

Mr. Robert Weaver was a critic of the Forum for seventeen years until the fall of 1945. Mrs. Leslie DuPuy is now the Forum critic.

On October 9, 1935, a meeting was called in the Senior Reading Room (browsing section of the present library) by Mrs. Frances Coleman, librarian, to form a club of the student assistants of the Waco High School Library. As the constitution had been previously drafted by one of the students, it was voted on at this first meeting. At a later meeting the name "Library Club" was selected.

Mrs. Coleman died early in the summer of 1938, and the following fall the club voted to change the name to "Coleman Library Club," honoring its first sponsor. Mrs. Helen K. Fuller became sponsor of the club and served during the two terms of 1938-1939. Mrs. Lucile W. Raley has been sponsor from 1939 to the present time.

The purpose of the club is to encourage the reading of good books, to teach the general principles of library service, and to engender a feeling of friendliness toward the library of Waco High School. Any student may belong to the Coleman Library Club who is interested in books and libraries. The majority of club programs are planned and produced by members. There are at least three joint meetings with other school clubs during each year, and guest speakers are asked for special feature programs.

Noteworthy projects of the Coleman Library Club in recent years have been the sponsorship of "Book Week" in Waco High School, compilation of scrapbooks for the Junior Red Cross, collection of material for Christmas boxes for soldiers at Camp Hood, and the arrangement of exhibits in homerooms on special holidays. During one term, members of the club collected interesting folders and pamphlets on cities of the South. This material was catalogued and placed in the Vertical File to be used for reference.

IN 1927 Mr. O. R. Lade took over the sponsorship of the Science Club. On its long trail down through the years it first survived the depression. The charter, later amended, was written by two high school students, as everything in the club is still being done by student members. Through the "boom years" the club has flourished. At one time the club met in the study hall to seat its one hundred and sixty local young scientists.

"War years" came next, when science went to war and won. Club members studied the development of mighty planes, submarines, and the sulfa drugs. Then came the moment science had always tried to achieve. Waco High School scientists read with astonishment of the atomic bomb.

Now members of the Science Club and former alumni are working scientifically toward keeping the peace we have won and improving the world.

THE Home Economics Club of Waco High School came into being during the fall of 1938. Its purpose is to foster more friendly relationship between girls in the Home Economics Department. It is open to any girl who is taking Home Economics or has taken Home Economics.

Among the projects fostered by the club are Red Cross work and construction of articles for the Home Economics center.

At least one open house is held during each semester at which time members of other clubs are invited.

WITH the purpose "To find and give the best," the organization of Girl Reserves offers opportunities for recreation and service to girls throughout the world. Girl Reserve clubs were started in grade schools and in junior and senior high schools between 1920 and 1930, making possible a variety of activities for members.

The Waco High School Girl Reserves take pleasure in community service and social activities. The slogan of this organization is "To face life squarely."

THE Girls' Athletic Association is an organization of thirty-five girls who assist in the routine duties of the girls' physical education classes. The G.A.A. club was organized several years ago under the sponsorship of Miss Emma Morehead and serves as a training course for future leaders in the field of Physical Education and Recreation.

The girls chosen in this group are considered upon the following requirements:

(1) scholarship
(2) health
(3) ability as leaders in physical and recreational activities
(4) interest
(5) sportsmanship
(6) personality

Only senior girls who have completed two years of Health and Physical Education are admitted to the G.A.A.'s. Upon initiation into the club, the members are given the privilege of wearing the club pin.

This enthusiastic group meets each Wednesday morning at 7:45 o'clock for instruction and club activities. The organization has intramural teams and participates in the inter-class tournaments during the year.

UNTIL this year, the Trades and Industries Co-op Club was called the Diversified Occupations Club. This club was organized in 1941 when the class in Diversified Occupations was first offered to the pupils of Waco High School. The name was changed to T & I Co-op Club, because there were so many Diversified Occupations classes in the state that wanted to organize a state club. Trades and Industries Co-operative was selected as the name. At present there are more than fifty clubs in the state, and a movement is now on to make the T & I Co-op Club a national organization. Only members of the Diversified Occupations class are eligible for club membership.

ORGANIZED in the fall of 1942, the Waco Chapter of the Future Farmers of America was chartered on November 16 of that year. The highlights of the club activities during 1942-43 were trips to the Houston Fat Stock Show. In 1944 and 1945 the boys raised victory gardens. In the spring of 1946 the club received a new charter which brought about a continuance of its participation as a member of the Future Farmers of America.

Dramatics Class Play

Director, MISS WAURINE WALKER

When Guinevere Voils and Jean White discover that Wanda Naylor, a movie star, has stolen their boy friends, they seek revenge by tearing her clothes off for souvenirs, as Marian Ripley looks on in disgust. The unexpected arrival of his girl, Maxine Barham, causes Calvin Cannon to collapse, to the surprise of Buddy Baird, in the arms of his roommate, Jerry Gray, because he has already invited Lorraine Moody to the Senior Prom. These scenes are taken from the Dramatics Class Play, "Best Foot Forward."

Guinevere Voils, Wanda Naylor, Jean White, Marian Ripley

Maxine Barham, Lorraine Moody, Buddy Baird, Jerry Gray, Calvin Cannon

Lilabeth Massenburg and Bill Bailey are off to a gay evening while Walter Fadal and Margie Stallard stay home with Donald McDonald and Barbara Crippen. Julianne Rast turns pale as Beryl Bentley introduces her to "detective" George Stone as Thomas Earl Turner smugly looks on. PTA mothers Helen Miller, Ola Gene Kuehl, and Helen Schroeder critically eye Frank McCown and Robbie Lochridge. These scenes all go to make up the Mid-Year Class play, "A Case of Springtime".

Beryl Bentley, Marilyn Fred, Ann Trautschold, Jean Harman, Frances Dossett, Mary Alice Brady, and Beth Kimbrough enjoy a little relaxation in the June Class play, "Spring Dance." Frances Dossett (third from right) tells the others about an interesting date.

In the background Ann Trautschold talks to George Stone; Beth Kimbrough and Rudy Pool, Frances Dossett and Bill Bailey, Ben Hosey and Marilyn Fred, and Bill Baker and Jean Harman seem to be enjoying each other's company. On the right Teddy Fair, Mary Alice Brady, and Beryl Bentley carry on a three-cornered conversation.

DURING the 1945 football season, yell-leaders Robbie Lochridge, Frank McCown, Kathleen Hartley, Joe Sawyer, Marjorie Stallard, and Tommy Riggs cheered our football team on to victory.

Under the direction of Miss Mary E. Fickling the yell-leader squad led yells at football games and pep rallies, sponsored dances, urged student participation in school activities, and stimulated school spirit.

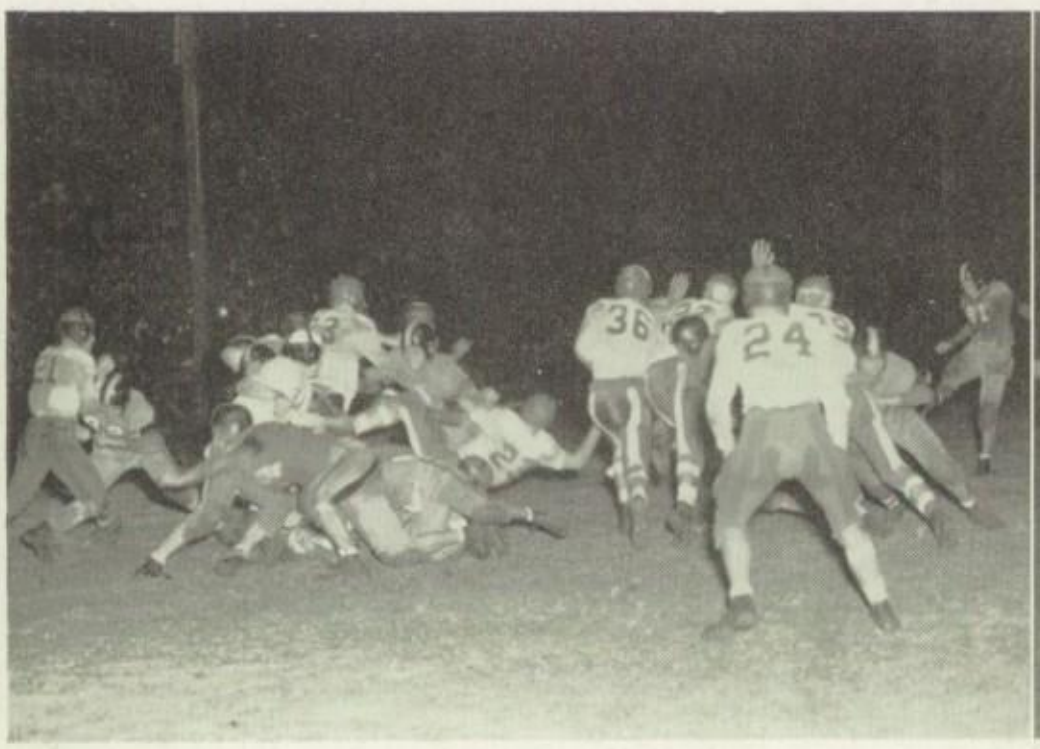
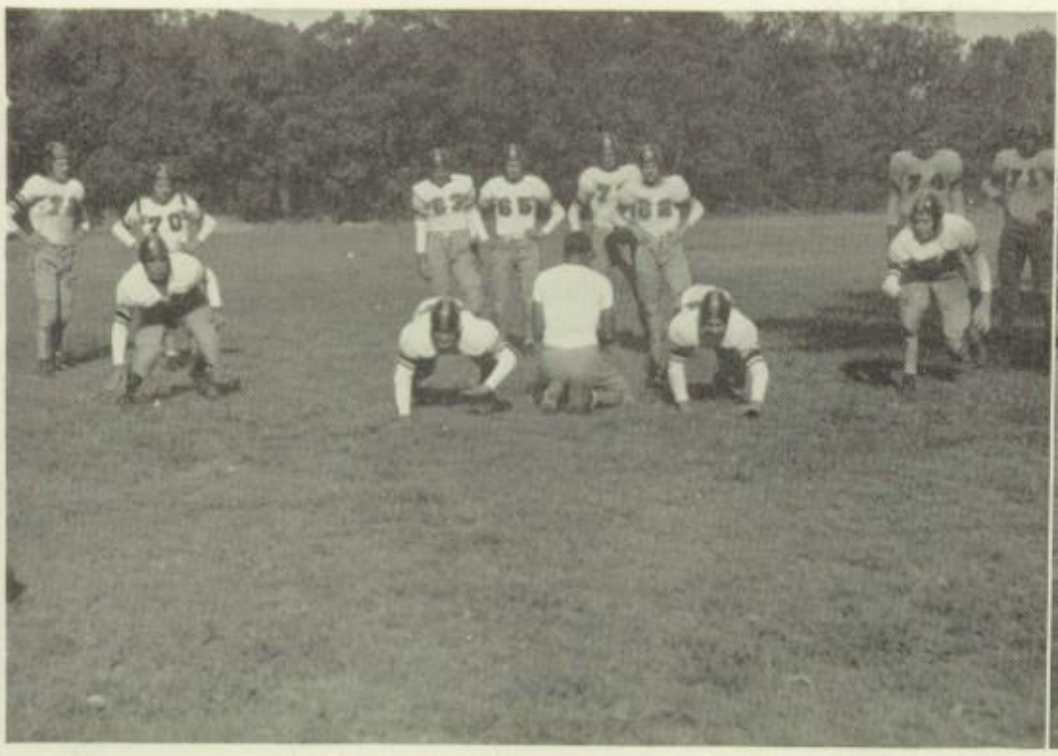
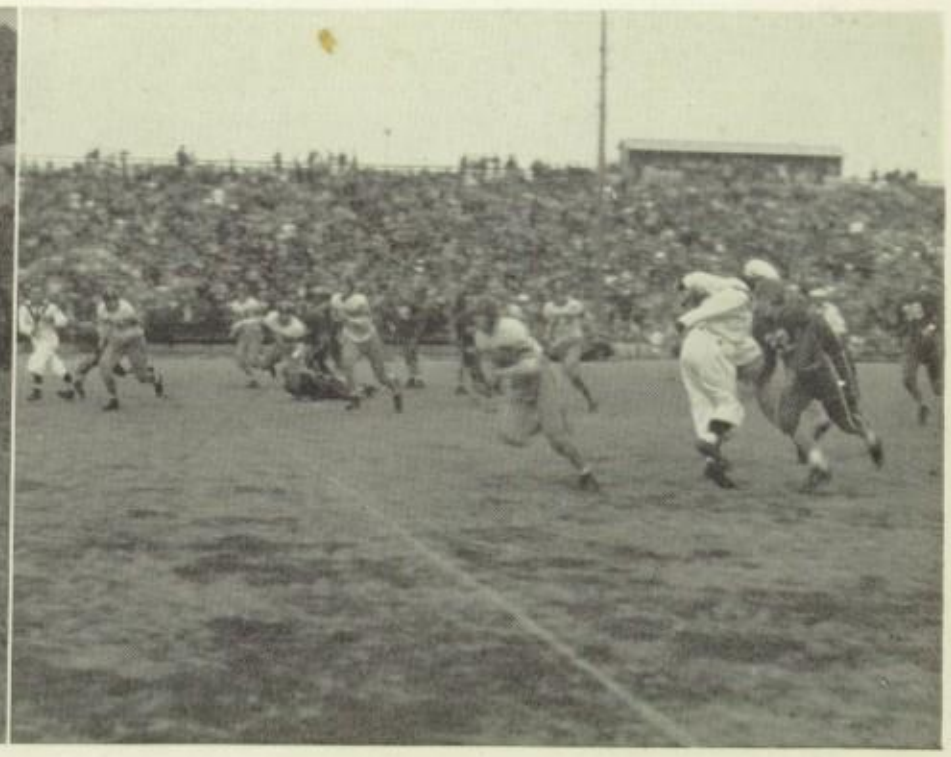
Charging, crushing, and cracking their way beyond the boosted strength of all opponents, the Waco Tigers plowed through to the 1945 co-championship of Texas.

A more spirited football machine has never been seen at Waco High School. There was that roaring Bengal line on which most of the burden rested. There were those small, shifty backs that hammered their way for consistent gains against towering opposition. Then there were the coaches of this Tiger powerhouse. These mentors, Head Coach Harry Stiteler and Line Coach Bill Dubose, were responsible for whipping together an All-Star team from one school, Waco High School.







In the 1945 season opener with Jeff Davis of Houston, the Tigers overcame a last half scoring threat from the aerials of the visitors to win 26 to 12. Cotton Lindloff led the Bengal offense, accounting for the initial tally. Kenneth Jumper scored the second and third touchdowns, and Bobby Sallee climaxed the Waco scoring when he galloped 12 yards to pay dirt in the last period.

The following week on a rain-drenched gridiron, Waco's football machine spun, slipped, and shocked a Denison Yellow Jacket eleven with a 19 to 0 victory. Marvin Brenner scored Waco's first two touchdowns and Lindloff accounted for the last one. Froggie Williams kicked the extra point.

Before an overflow crowd in Dallas, Waco met its first and only defeat of the year as the Highland Park Scotties pushed over a touchdown in the fading moments to tame the Bengals 7 and 0. Lindloff carried the ball again and again to lead the crushing Waco offense as it hammered the Scottie forward wall and cracked through for continual gains.

Opening the district grind against the Hillsboro eleven, Waco's Golden Bengals swept the visiting Eagles from the district race with a 33 to 0 win.

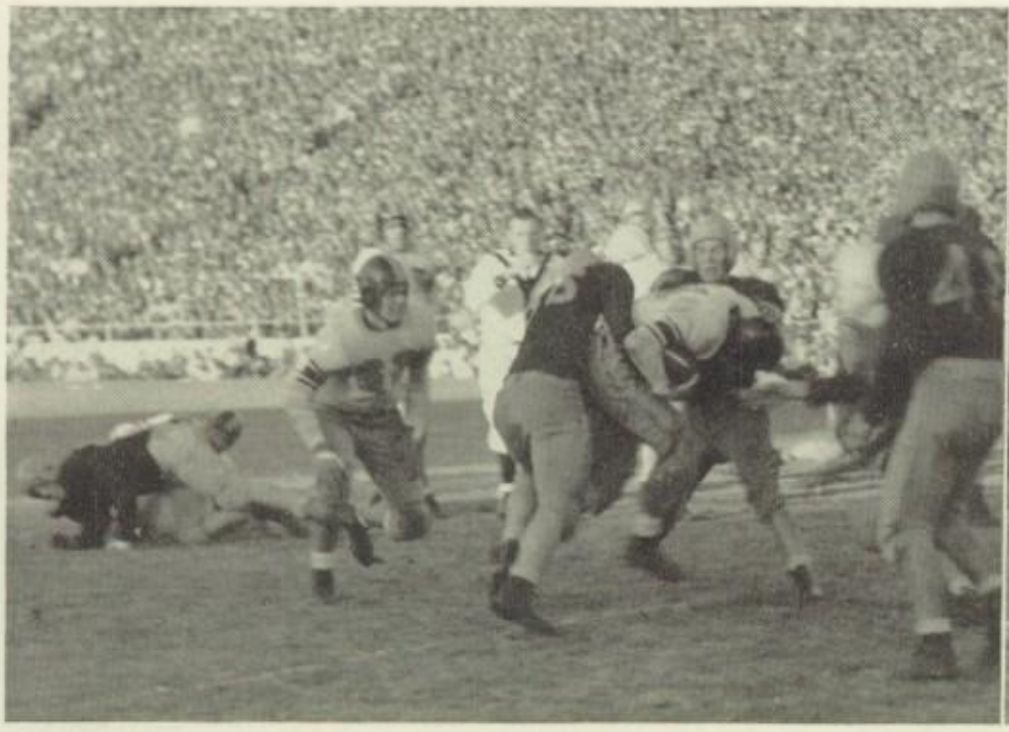
Speeding through the entire Hillsboro secondary, Jack Scarborough scored on a thirty-five-yard scamper. In the second period Lindloff, Sallee, and Brenner led a bruising attack deep into Eagle territory, and then Lindloff dropped back to the thirty-five and passed to Froggie Williams on the goal line for the second touchdown. Scarborough took one of Lindloff's pitches for the third counter. Brenner and Bob Blackstock carried across in the second half.

Paced by Brenner, the Tigers thrashed the Waxahachie Indians 27 to 7. Touchdown number one came when southpaw Sallee passed to Froggie Williams, and Brenner took the ball on over after a few plays from scrimmage. A penalty nullified Williams' first conversion. Sallee, Brenner, and Lindloff were responsible for the other Tiger tallies.

Although playing a bit off form, the Tigers of Waco banished the Tigers from Corsicana to the tune of 33 to 0.



Cotton Lindloff continued his touchdown parade when he bucked over for the first score after Brenner had reeled off a long run into Corsi territory. Frog Williams again came forth with his place-kicked extra point. Brenner carried over for the second and third tallies and Scarborough drove through for the fourth touchdown. Little June Clark of the losers gave the Wacoans some trouble, but Jack Simpson, Dan White, and Murphy led the way in keeping those speed demons in check.

The reserves took charge for Waco in the last of the game with Bill Dozier plowing over for the final score.

Completely annihilating the Bryan Broncs on their own field, the Tigers turned up with one of their best performances of the year. Waco opened up like a house afire with Lindloff and Brenner carrying the pigskin deep into Bryan territory; then Brenner crashed over. Brenner also went over for the second Tiger tally. Scarborough had set up the score with a brilliant run.

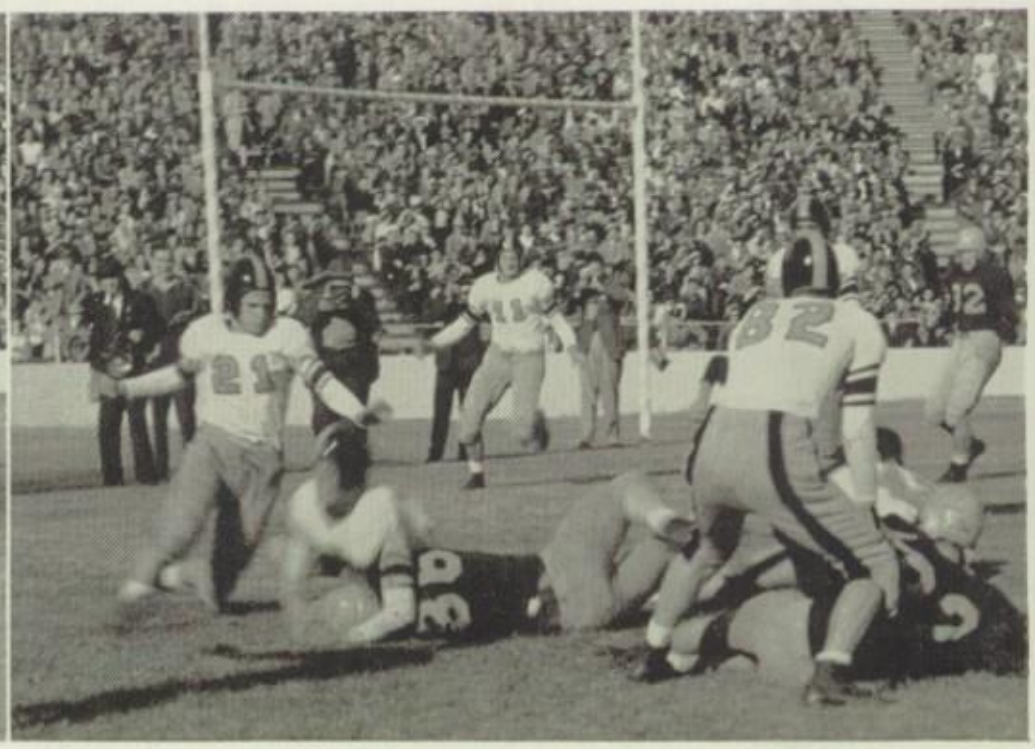
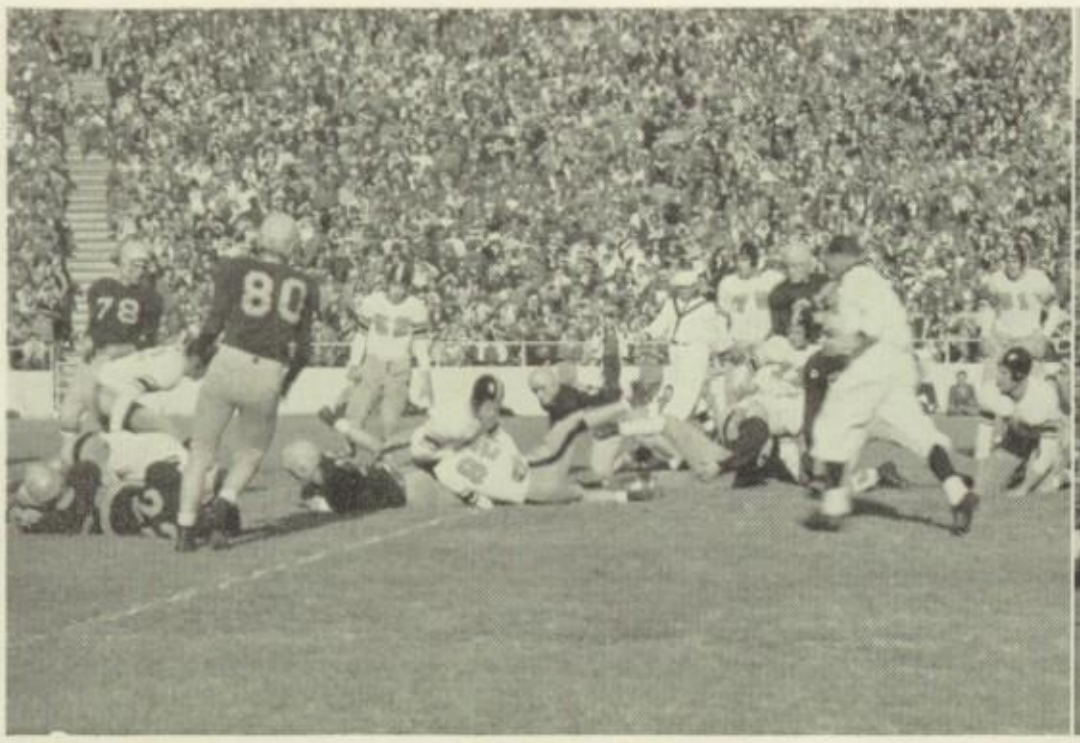
Bulldog Smith ran around end for the third score at the beginning of the second half. Brenner scored the next when he intercepted and ran back 45 yards to pay dirt. Blackstock whipped around end for the next one, and finally Dozier's pass to Curtis Ledbetter ended the scoring. Lonnie Griffith kicked goal.

The Ennis Lions fell easy prey to the Tigers by a 49 to 19 decision with Froggie Williams scoring first as he caught a pass and followed with the conversion. Then Scarborough pushed over, and again Williams booted the extra point. Dozier carried over for the third score, and Griffith kicked goal.

A safety gave the Bengals a 23 to 0 lead. Dozier's passes carried the Tigers on with Griffith turning a Lion aerial into a Tiger score. Penalties held back many touchdowns for the Wacoans. Ennis scored three touchdowns against Bengal reserves, a long punt return, a Tiger fumble, and a blocked punt being responsible.





The Tigers again made pre-publicised "hard game" an easy victory as they downed the Temple Wildcats 33 to 6.

Temple scored first, and it appeared as if one of those well known Tiger-Wildcat upsets with Temple the up-setter was taking place. Waco quickly tied the score and went into the lead as Froggie Williams made good his conversion attempt. One of the Bengal scores came when Nick Kazanas blocked a punt, and Froggie Williams scored. All of the Tigers starred as the contest turned into a one-way scoring spree.

Although weakened by a flu epidemic, the Bengals blazed over the Breckenridge Bucks 20 to 0 to win the Bi-District Championship.

Waco went far into Breck territory after the initial kickoff but failed to score. After an exchange of punts, Brenner tore through from the four to make it 6 to 0. Near the end of the second half with seconds to go, Lindloff tossed one to Froggie Williams in the end zone. Williams added the extra point, and Waco led the visiting Bucks 13 to 0.

Buddy Furrer intercepted a Breck pass and returned it to pay dirt to give the Tigers a 19 to 0 edge. Again the trusty toe of Froggie was there and ended the day's scoring with a 20 to 0 Waco advantage.

Finally breaking loose in the last quarter from a stubborn Marshall defense, the Waco Tigers pushed over two touchdowns and kicked one extra point to brand the home club 13 to 0.

The following week Waco again took to the road, going to Houston to meet the Goose Creek eleven. It was a defensive contest all the way. The Ganders pushed over one counter in the first half and one in the last half only to have both called back for an infraction of the rules. Waco rumbled over the Gander goal for the only score of the game and won the right to play in the State Final contest against the Highland Park Scotties.

It was mid-winter with a spring atmosphere as the Waco Bengals and the Hi-Park Scots clashed in the State Championship tilt at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas.

It was a grueling first half for the Wacoans with the Highlanders showing all the class and scoring one touchdown and out-playing the Tigers to a noticeable degree.

It was a grueling second half for the Highlanders with the Wacoans showing all the class and scoring one touchdown and missing a field goal by only a few feet to out-play the Scots.

Coach Stiteler had changed his defense during halves, and the Scotties were stopped cold. Waco was behind and needed a T.D. and an extra point to tie it up. The aggressive Cotton Lindloff dropped back deep into his own territory and heaved a long aerial to the racing Froggie Williams, who grabbed the pigskin, galloped off, and left the proverbial "speedy" Scot safety man to score. Then Froggie kicked the extra point to give the Tigers a tie, 7 to 7.

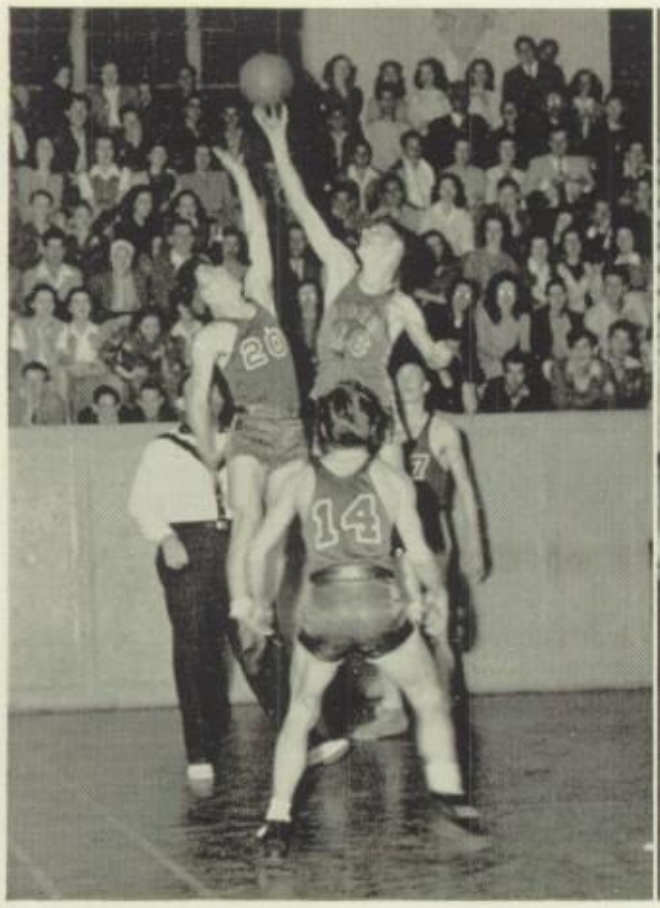
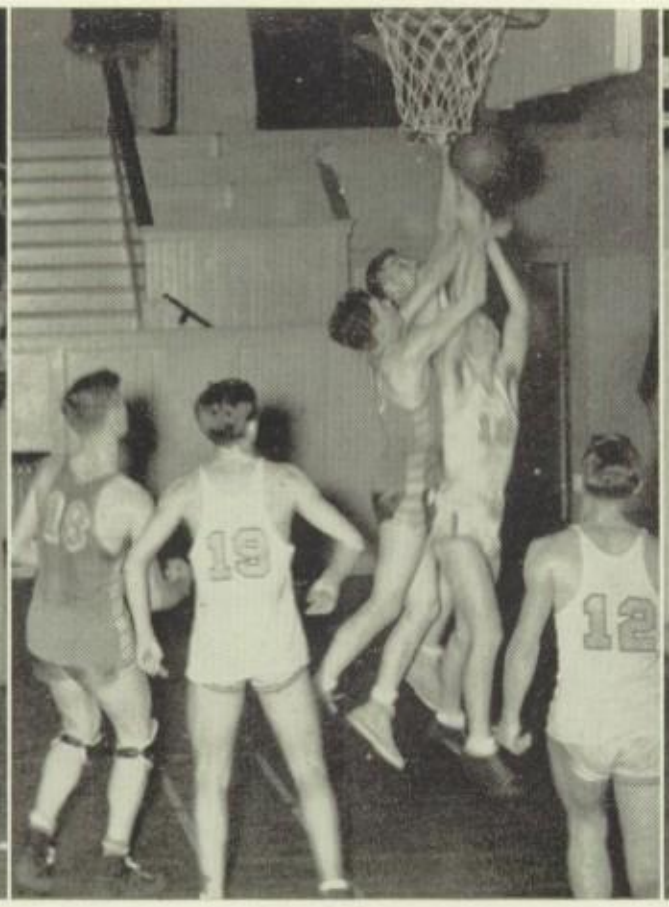
The gold-and-white-suited Tigers from Waco took a tumble from their high-ranking perch this season. For the first time in six years, the Bengals did not get to the state playoffs.

The team began the season with a bad losing streak, being taken by Paschal High of Fort Worth and by the fast Camp Hood crew. The Tigers, after going to the semi-finals at the Dallas Invitation Meet, were nosed out by Woodrow Wilson of Dallas, 35-23.





By the time the district games had rolled around, the Tigers had shaped into a fairly good ball club. However, the team did not have as strong a competition as it should have had. The only close games were with Bryan and Waxahachie. The Tigers took Bryan 38-25 and Waxahachie 36-19. The last week of district play, the Bengals began losing their dead-eye aim. In the last district game, Waco beat Waxahachie 41-6, thus gaining the 10AA title.

This year Brownwood became champ of 9AA. In the first bi-district game, Waco traveled to the western town only to get a sound drubbing from the Lions, 45-36. The next game Brownwood came from behind at the half to take the Tigers 25-23 in one of the hardest fought defensive games ever seen in Waco.

As the season closed officially for the Tigers, one was not given much chance to pick out the stars of the team. The players had improved so much that any combination would make a good team. Joe Sawyer, John DeWitt, James Williams, Hollis Chatham, and Percy Hough served as sparkplugs for the team, but if one of these were taken out of the game, his position was ably filled by Jimmy Jones, Charlie Thedford, Paul Murray, Wayne Goodwyn, Harville Armstrong, Bob Alexander, Ben Gillespie, or Joe Allen Goss.

Dear "Nake",

Mr. Del Morgan addresses our co-champions during the 1945 football banquet held at the Roosevelt Hotel.

TO honor the co-champions of Texas football, a banquet was given at the Roosevelt Hotel January 4, 1946. Befitting the glory brought to Waco High School by the Tiger team, the banquet was the most elaborate in years.

The guest speaker, Mr. Del Morgan, carried out the champion theme in his speech by giving the qualities of a good football player as he spelled the word champion. For C, he stressed Courage; H, Honor; A, Ambition; M, Morals; P, Perfection; I, Initiative; O, Organization; and N, National Unity.

During the banquet, blue ribbons with Champion printed on them were presented to the team, coaches, managers, and yell leaders.

The boys gave several yells, and the parents of the boys were introduced by Coach Harry Stiteler.

On the front of the gold and white programs was a picture of the Tiger team. The place cards were pipe-cleaner figures in the form of players and yell leaders.

Miss Lulu Strickland read her original poems about each of the boys on the team. The verse about Clifford Lindloff was as follows:

He's a triple-threat tail back without any doubt.
On the one-inch line his punts go out.
He hits the receiver with passes that are true,
And drives down the field like a locomotive, too.
He was chosen by the scribes for the All-State team;
For the sports writer's column Cotton is a choice theme.
Now all of us have taken to that habit like a fiend,
Since he threw that gorgeous pass to that fleet-footed end.

Try her food, then cry for more!
She hopes they will remember how
They had such fun at the Purple Cow.

TEXAS is on the March!

TEXAS is on the march INDUSTRIALLY . . . driving forward under full power to provide more jobs and continuing opportunities for its people. During war years, Texas demonstrated its industrial capacity and capability when its industries fulfilled $6,418,810,000 worth of war contracts involving the production of planes and parts, explosives, synthetic rubber, steel, magnesium, gasoline, oil, and a long list of other materials and supplies requiring skilled labor.

During the war years, Texas' industrial production rose from $450,000,000 annually to two and one-half times that amount on war contracts alone. This has resulted in expansion of plant facilities and labor force, and peace-time plans which call for even greater industrial production than during the war.

As rapidly as building materials and machinery become available, Texas cities and towns are witnessing the building of new and the expansion of existing factories and shops. Texas has everything needed by and for industry . . . an abundance and diversity of raw materials and natural resources for converting into manufactured products, mild climate, excellent transportation facilities, highly intelligent and easily trained native labor . . . and abundant cheap electric power. Furthermore, Texas is the gateway to the Latin Americas, whether by land, by sea or by air.

By the processes of reconversion and by wise and careful planning, Texans are determined to make the most of their state's vast resources.

Texas Power & Light Company, a pioneer Texas institution, joins all of Texas in inviting the immediate attention of American industrialists to the opportunities offered by the Lone Star State.

As abundant, dependable and low-cost electric power from TP&L transmission lines was a vital factor in producing for the war, so is it now in producing for peace. This Company's industrial-minded manpower, as well as its vast power facilities, are at the disposal of those seeking to develop new or to expand existing industrial opportunities in Texas.

THE HUNTERS

A hundred years ago today
A wilderness was here;
A man with powder in his gun
Went forth to hunt a deer.
But now times have changed somewhat
Along a different plan;
A dear with powder on her nose
Goes forth to hunt a man.
